The Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression

To Professor Maavor.

Dear Professor Maavor -

Thank you for the loan of this copy of Deirdre. I hope you will be interested in our players who are going to present Tenthredin in Boston and the Land of Heart's Desire at His Excellency's (Confederate) Principal's Studio

Dear Professor Maavor -
I will be very much interested in Mrs. Farris coming, and when I know the Board will see if we can plan an evening for Greek antiquities in our Theatre.

Someone told me today her date with you was for April the sixth, in

I would greatly appreciate a criticism from you, if you can spare the time to see us rehearse.

Sincerely,

The afternoon. If this is so, I will be sorry, for my little lecture comes on that day and <sup>in the</sup> afternoon. at four o'clock. I regret this because I should like all my students to hear Miss Farr.

Will you come to us next Friday to the "Open Meeting".
My University Students will present scenes from
"Pygmalion and Galatea"?
~~and~~ When you see <sup>and hear</sup> awful mistakes, close your eyes and ears, and pierce out with your imagination in what we lack.

Sincerely

Edoth Raff
